Amherst

UMass Amherst campus in the heart of New England covers nearly 1450 acres with more than 150 academic buildings, libraries, and sports facilities in a friendly, unhurried pastoral setting. The scenic campus, with its tree lined walkways, is a study in contrasts: countryside and city, old and new, sophisticated and rustic. The town of Amherst gracefully combines colonial charm with the vigor of one of New England's major educational centers, The Five College Consortium: Smith, Hampshire, Amherst, Mount Holyoke Colleges and The University of Massachusetts Amherst. This area of Western Massachusetts offers an exhilarating degree of social, cultural and recreational diversity.

The Campus and the Amherst area offer a variety of cultural and historical attractions: Jazz, classical, and popular music concerts, fine theaters and cinemas, quaint shops and superb restaurants, as well as museums, town fairs, and historical sites. Where else can you find an antique set of Yiddish books from the world's largest collection?

Additional sightseeing will include visits to Tanglewood, Springfield and Boston.

With views overlooking the campus lake, the UMass Campus Center Hotel is located in the heart of campus.

Chicago

The windy city is a cornucopia of modern art, fine dining, cutting edge comedy, and die-hard sports fans. Snap a photo of your reflection in the silver Cloud Gate sculpture at Millennium Park before heading to Grant Park to get hit with the refreshing spray of Buckingham Fountain. There are dozens of museums and theater companies in Chicago, so a cultural experience is never hard to find. Chicago is the third most populous city in the United States. With 2.7 million residents, it is the most populous city in both the U.S. state of Illinois and the American Midwest.

You can look forward to sightseeing trips to Magnificent Mile Michigan Avenue - Chicago's famed shopping district, Millennium Park, Art Institute of Chicago, Chicago Cultural Center, Shedd Aquarium, The Field Museum, Willis Tower, Navy Pier, Architecture River Cruise, Illinois Holocaust Museum and the Chicago Botanic Gardens, Plus more!

Your accommodations, classes and most meals are at the Doubletree Hotel Chicago North Shore, just minutes from downtown and O'Hare International Airport and one block from the Westfield Old Orchard Shopping Mall. The hotel offers 369 luxurious, European inspired guest rooms, complimentary internet, indoor/outdoor pool, flat screen TV, and of course freshly baked Doubletree cookies daily!
